18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings of today highlight how people can misuse religion for their own personal ambitions. For such people, religion becomes a means to satisfy their greed for material things and worldly pursuits. The people of Israel, whom God called and made his own, could never understand how much God loved them and why he was leading them to freedom from slavery. The moment they felt hungry, they turned against Moses and Aaron, the servants of God, and thereby their God himself. Jesus on the contrary challenged those who were looking for him to believe in the one God has sent. He is the bread of life.

18 DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Las lecturas de hoy ponen de relieve cómo la gente puede abusar de la religión para sus propias ambiciones personales. Para estas personas, la religión se convierte en un medio para satisfacer su codicia por las cosas materiales y búsquedas mundanas. El pueblo de Israel, a quien Dios llamó e hizo propia, no podían entender lo mucho que Dios los amaba y por qué los estaba guiando a la libertad de la esclavitud. En el momento en que se sentían hambre, se volvieron en contra de Moisés y Aarón, los siervos de Dios, y con ello su propio Dios. Jesús, por el contrario desafió a los que esperaban para que creáis en el que Dios ha enviado. Él es el pan de vida.
