17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I feel sorry for Philip-he failed the test. Your question to him was only a test, for as John tells us, you knew what you were going to do. Lord, I would not have been any better than Philip. Unmindful of your presence and power at my side, I too would have conceded that the situation was hopeless. How and where could one buy enough bread for such a large crowd in a deserted place! Hats off to Andrew who dared to come up with a solution! But any sensible person would have labelled it outright stupid. Five barley loaves and two small fish-where they worth mentioning at all? Andrew thought it was. Was he perhaps suggesting that is meagre supply would be much in the hands of the master? Was he prompting you to act? I believe so.

17 DOMINGO EN
TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Lo siento por Felipe, él no pasó la prueba. Tu pregunta para él era sólo una prueba, pues como nos dice Juan, que sabía lo que iba a hacer. Señor, yo no habría sido mejor que Felipe. Sin tener en cuenta su presencia y el poder a mi lado, yo también habría admitido que la situación era desesperada. ¿Cómo y dónde puede uno comprar suficiente pan para tanta gente en un lugar desierto! Me quito el sombrero ante Andres que se atrevio a encontrar una solución! Sin embargo, cualquier persona sensata lo habría marcado de plano estúpido. Cinco panes de cebada y dos peces, vale la pena mencionarlo en absoluto? Andres pensó que sí. ¿Estaba quizá sugiriendo que eso sería mucho en manos del maestro? ¿Te esta impulsando a actuar? Eso creo.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
