15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the year 1880 in Paris a rather poorly dressed priest showed up at the presbytery, looking for a night's lodgings. He had come from Turin, and was trying to raise funds to build a church. The visitor's name was John Bosco. The resident priest put him in the attic. Many years later when John Bosco was canonized, the priest said: If I would have known who he was; I would not have put him the attic. I would have given him the best room in the house. Often we know even less of the true identity of those who come across who are in need of help. But it shouldn't matter, all that matters is that we see in each of them a wounded human being and that we do our best to bind up their wounds.

15 domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el año 1880 en Paris un sacerdote vestido muy modestamente llego al presbiterio, buscando alojamiento. Venia de Turin, y es estaba tratando de conseguir fondos para construir una Iglesia. Su nombre era Juan Bosco. El sacerdote del presbiterio lo alojo en el desván. Años después Juan Bosco fue canonizado, y ese sacerdote dijo: Si hubiera sabido quien seria, le hubiera dado el mejor cuarto de la casa y no lo hubiera alojado en el desván. Muy seguido no conocemos la verdadera identidad de aquellos que nos cruzamos en el camino y necesitan de nuestra ayuda. Lo que nos debe de importar es la herida que vemos en ese ser humano y tratar de la mejor manera de curar sus heridas.
