The Transfiguration of the Lord

I too would have loved to be with Peter, James and John to worship you, and savor that heavenly experience as you were transfigured, and gave them a glimpse of your glory. The ecstasy of those fleeting moments was short-lived for them. The mountain top experience would soon end. The shadow of your cross was already falling on you. At the hour of the cross, your disciples all would fall away and flee. Yet, perhaps the memory of what they had experienced at your transfiguration would still keep alive a flicker of hope. I love to believe that was your purpose in granting them this extra-ordinary privilege of seeing you in glory. That was your way of sustaining them in time of trial. Lord, sustain my faith too when it wavers in time of trials and temptation.

La Transfiguración del Señor

Yo también habría amado estar con Pedro, Santiago y Juan para adorarlo y saborear esa experiencia celestial mientras usted se transfiguró y les dio una vislumbre de su gloria. El éxtasis de esos fugaces momentos duró poco para ellos. La experiencia de montaña pronto terminaría. La sombra de tu cruz ya estaba cayendo sobre ti. A la hora de la cruz, todos tus discípulos caerían y huirían. Sin embargo, tal vez el recuerdo de lo que habían experimentado en su transfiguración todavía mantendría viva un parpadeo de esperanza. Me encanta creer, que ese fue tu propósito al concederles este extraordinario privilegio de verte en la gloria. Ese era su modo de sostenerlos en tiempo de prueba. Señor, sostiene mi fe también cuando flaquea en tiempo de pruebas y tentación.
